

4.7.2 Systems

In addition to the regular maintenance tasks (see unit 4.6), different systems require different levels of maintenance. The irrigation plant room and substrate moisture should be physically checked once a month, while ideally the irrigation log and moisture metres should be checked remotely on a daily basis. Nutrient and pH levels should be checked every month, and the lighting system every 3 months.

BACK

NEXT